

Statement from icare

Insurance and Care NSW (icare) is committed to delivering the best services possible to its customers, including severely injured workers.

icare is looking into the issues raised by participants of Workers Care and work with them individually to address their concerns.